 - Are you planning on having a club highlight for clubfest
 - codysave@iastate.edu
 - Daily Sports Number: 294-3148
 - Becki Adair, Risk Management
 - Waivers and Travel
 - Release and Waiver of Liability says you are participating in a club as a VOLUNTEER, this also goes for other participants other than that specific club, they have different waivers they much sign (members fill out at the beginning of the year along with the medical form)
 - Some activities do have a chance to cause more injuries, that changes the waiver that you must time (for instance special events that a club holds)
 - Medical from good to have because in a club is traveling or doing an event, that info is readily available, have it when you are traveling or at the event you are going to.
 - Accident report forms: take forms with you on trips to incase something happens, write down details.
 - They will be on SCC website, under forms, then waivers, then find your own club, has all forms, bring it to 2220 State Gym,
 - ISU Student Organization Travel Authorization: it will be online, can access through rec services website, don't know when it will go live, it will all be online, it will be for all travel
 - Register for a 15 passenger van 4 weeks ahead
- Women's Lacrosse
 - Has been a group for 3 years, but nothing has really been done, going to arrange scrimmages with other schools this school year
